COVID-19 Protocol Updates

The COVID-19 pandemic safety protocols have been a focus for all of us at Willow Valley Communities for two years. We are pleased to see infection case rates and hospitalization numbers continue to decrease. The improved metrics now allow for the much-anticipated safe return to more normal activities.

Effective Monday, March 14, 2022, amenities at Willow Valley Communities will be open to both Residents and Resident Guests, with very few exceptions that are noted on the attached list in orange print. Please note: If the infection metrics change within our WVC campuses or in the county, safety protocols will be reviewed and revised as needed.

Guidelines for Visitors to our Community

- Visitors will continue to stop at the guard station for screening
- Unvaccinated visitors are strongly encouraged to wear a mask while in public
- Visitors arriving from recent international travel are asked to follow current guidance based on their vaccination status

Independent Living Amenities are open to Residents and their Guests with the following exceptions:

- Culinary: Community dining rooms and Four Seasons will remain open to Residents only during breakfast and dinner. Limited “to go” meals are available for visitors.
- Cultural Center Evening Theater: Renaissance Evening Events remain open to Residents only and masks are required. Full opening is anticipated for the summer series.
